

Team Member Introductions

Each month, our goal is to introduce a few of our amazing new team members through ISA Today. So, keep an eye out for the latest edition!

Jennifer DeBold,
EPS Support Specialist

Jennifer joins ISA with a long history as an administrative support professional, primarily in the association and health care fields.

For eight years, Jennifer was employed by the Association of Energy Engineers as the Training and Exhibits Administrator. She coordinated logistics for trainings and seminars across the country.

Jennifer has also worked as an administrative support professional in various medical offices.

On a personal note:

Jennifer is a passionate animal lover, with a soft spot for animals with special needs. She has a 14-year-old Chihuahua with diabetes and a cat who suffered an amputation from an unfortunate accident. She rescued both of these pets from severe circumstances.

Jennifer prioritizes living a healthy lifestyle and as such volunteers as the co-chair of our internal Health and Wellness Committee.

As for her happy place, you will likely find her curled up with a good book. Jennifer enjoys reading biographies, true crime stories and thrillers.

Keisha joins ISA with a long, successful career in executive level support.

Keisha served as the office manager for another non-profit in the Atlanta area. She provided administrative support to the leadership team of Georgia Campaign Adolescent Power & Potential.

Keisha prides herself in creating efficiencies and making work easier for those she supports.

Keisha Delaney,
Executive Assistant

On a personal note:

She loves music, dancing and travelling. The water is her happy place; whether it's in the Bahamas, Cancun or Hawaii.
